SUNDAY SCHOOL

There are new videos, at home activities and coloring pages being posted on our church's website. Help continue your children's Christian Education while at home by sharing these Sunday School activities at home. Watch weekly for updates and additional activities. New Sunday school lesson has been posted to Facebook.

Years ago, when one of my favorite aunts had passed away, my cousin, (her son,) looked at the small table filled with pictures for her memorial service and simply said, "She was always there for me." That's all he said, but that was all that was needed to be said. That statement summarized the life she led and how it was impressed upon the heart of her son as she departed from one life and entered into another.

When we think of best friends, close family members, and perhaps coaches or mentors, we too often have similar thoughts about what makes the relationship so special. The words are short and few, but they mean everything to a relationship, "...always there for me..." The words are foundational to strong relationships with those we love, and are what make our closest relationships so special.

As we enter into the home stretch of another Lenten Season, anticipating the day when we can shout and sing loudly that Christ Has Risen, let's reflect on our relationship with Jesus and His presence in our lives. We bring our worries and problems, moments of both despair and happiness to our friends and those close to us who are considered the few, (and sometimes the one,) who are always there for us. Yet their compassion and listening ear, although so helpful and loving, can only do so much for us compared to what Jesus has done, and will continue to do for us.

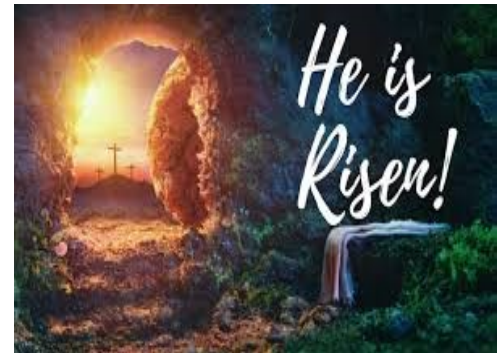

When we turn our eyes to the Cross, we see that Jesus literally gave up His life for us, for each and every one of us. The Cross is where this took place, and Jesus invites us to come to the Cross with every care, concern, sin, worry, anxiety and anything else this world can send our way. He is there, on the Cross, to bear the burdens that we carry. He openly offers us the opportunity to bring our burdens to Him at the foot of the Cross, and He will forgivingly and lovingly take them from us.

There's no symbol in the world that represents more than what Jesus did for us on the Cross. He gave up His life so we can live. He died sinless to take away our sins. And most of all, He's there for us. He's there for you, for me and for anyone who accepts Him into their lives as the Risen Savior.

Easter will be here in just a few short weeks. Let's accept Jesus's invitation to meet Him at the Cross and give Him everything we're carrying that weighs us down. Jesus will set us free from our worldly burdens and allow us to walk peacefully with Him every day.

The power of Jesus on the Cross being raised to eternal life will never fail us. What incredible confidence we can have in knowing He is there for us...every moment...of every day.

*Have a wonderful and blessed Holy Week and Easter,
Dom Perfetti*

Healing Ministry

PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING

Welcome everyone to our Ministry of Healing. Last month we celebrated Woman's Day. All women are unique in the site of God. Every woman's life experiences are very different and also is their faith. But their struggles in this world are felt all around the world. Of all the struggles, the one that is the most vulnerable is that of infertility—which means unable to conceive a child. In our Bible, we can read about these kinds of women. I would like to share the story of one woman and how she was solved her infertility by her prayers.

In the Old Testament, 1 Samuel 1:1-11 and 2:1-10, her name was Hannah. Her husband, Elkannah, loved her even whenever she was sad. He consoled her by saying, "Why are weeping? Why don't you eat? Why are you so down hearted? Don't I mean more to you than ten sons?" (1 Samuel 1:1-8). But her childless problem was not solved. In her bitterness of her soul? Hannah wept much and prayed to the Lord God Almighty at the Temple Of God. Please read 1 Samuel 2:1-10. She praised God first, being rock firm, strong, and unchanging. She was praying with confidence of God's mercy and love. Her prayer is a beautiful poem. Our friends, relatives, and circumstances will change; but, God will not change. Hannah's prayer was telling every woman to cling onto God. Hannah was seeing God as a solid rock. He is the one who knows what we do, sovereigns over all the affairs of people, and is the supreme judge who administers perfect judgement. Hannah opens her prayer the way for God to work. Each of us face difficult times. When we have no answers from God, nothings comes easy in our family, our work, or our relationships. It is difficult to pray when we feel so infective.

After her prayers, she asked God. "O Lord Almighty, if you will only look upon your servant's misery and remember me. Do not forget your servant, but give me a son. Then I will give him to the Lord for all the days of his life; and, no razor be shaved on his head." (1 Samuel 1:1-10-11).

(Hannah & Samuel)

We must be careful when we pray and promise God what are we asking and going to give back to him. Because ,God Almighty also listens to our prayers very carefully and takes our promises seriously. After her prayers, she conceived a male child, Samuel. She then brought him back to the temple; and, left him at the temple with Priest Eli. Let us imagine her faith and promise to God. She kept her promise. Are we keeping our promises that we said to God? But He is full of love; and, by His love He will forgive us. Let us go to him, praise him, and pray for him...

O' severing Lord, from every forest of the earth and its trees, you have chosen 'One Vine'.

From all the lands of the world, you have chosen yourself 'One Region.'

And from all the flowers of the world, you have chosen for yourself 'One Lily.'

And from all the depth of the sea, you have filled for yourself 'One River.'

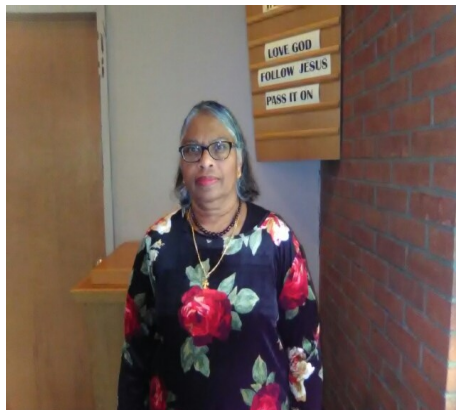

And from all the cities that you have built, 'Zion' for Yourself.

And from all the birds that you have created, you have named yourself, 'One Dove.'

And from all the flock that you have been made, you have provided for yourself 'One Sheep.'

And from all the multitude of people you have gotten for yourself, 'One People.'

And to this people, whom you have given yourself and your life on the cross and redeemed your 'People.' Amen.

PARSONAGE UPDATE...

The Parsonage committee is so grateful for all the support that the congregation has given us in this endeavor. It is a long process, and we appreciate all the emotional and financial support that we have received. Currently we are looking for some clarification from Key Bank to ensure that we have everything necessary to present to a charge conference.

Meanwhile, we are keeping our contractors updated as we make progress towards this project. If you are interested in donating to the parsonage project, you can send a check to the church. Please make sure and put "parsonage" on the memo line. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to anyone on the committee or a trustee.

Planned Giving Defined...

What is a “planned gift” anyway?

New to Planned Giving?
Here's Where You Begin.

It's a gift that is planned now and realized at a future date. Most planned gifts are made as part of a person's overall financial planning. Financial planning is usually accomplished with the help of experienced professionals – financial advisors, accountants, and attorneys. Like many nonprofit organizations, McKownville United Methodist Church accepts planned gifts from its members and friends.

Planned Giving is people, people from all walks of life and all income levels. People who want to make a difference in the world. If you have a dream of making a significant gift to support the spiritual work of McKownville United Methodist Church, while building a financially secure future for yourself and your loved ones, Planned Giving can make that dream a reality. If you would like more information, please contact Tom Myers.

UMCOR

The Upper New York (UNY) Mission Central HUB is preparing for the coming spring to support survivors affected by the different disasters (floods and high winds) that may have impacted our area. In partnering with the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), UNY's status of kits on hand is low at best. The most requested items are cleaning and hygiene kits. Those who can support our communities by assembling kits in your homes or churches, please share projects so we can support your efforts and possibly share your methods with others. Any number of kits will help.

Please review the list for contents of each kit. If you cannot provide complete kits, we can use individual items to help complete other kits that arrive incomplete.
<https://www.unyumc.org/mission/umcor-supply-list>.
